

FINE TERRA COTTA WORK.

Mr. Jacob C. Cassel Opens a Down Town Store and Office.

An indication of the growing popularity of fine terra cotta work of one kind and another is afforded by the fact that Mr. Jacob C. Cassel, the proprietor of the Fair Hill Terra Cotta Works at 2341 North Seventh street, this city, has found it necessary to open a down town store and office, the location of the same being in the new and elegantly lighted large store room at No. 709 Arch street. The works in question have been established for about a quarter of a century, and are the largest and best known in the country devoted exclusively to the manufacture of floricultural terra cotta work. And it is also an acknowledged fact that the largest variety of designs and most beautiful and finished work throughout must be credited to this establishment. For a good many years past the trade of the house has extended over the entire country, and the list of permanent connections is all the time being steadily added to. During recent years, since natural gas has come into such extensive use, a special feature has been made of terra cotta logs for open fire places and these are in great and growing demand in the natural gas districts of the country.—Form the Mercantile and Financial Times, Philadelphia, Pa.

Jacob C. Cassel, is an esteemed and worthy brother of the church, and we are pleased to learn of his prosperity.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Don't Go To Bed

And stuff your stomach with nauseating or poisonous drugs. Such remedies are worse than the disease and make and keep you sick, besides burdening you with a big doctor's bill; but rather (no matter what ails you) send to Dr. Scott, 842 Broadway, New York City, and get four of his Electric Plasters. If the name of this paper is given when you send your one dollar for the Plasters, he will give you a pair of his Electric Insoles, which, if worn in connection with the Plaster, prevents sickness, cures you, and makes you feel younger and better than you have for many years. Read carefully the advertisement in another part of this paper. Dr. Scott is well known throughout the United States for his skill and ability in having applied electro-magnetism to so many articles of household and daily use at a price which enables every one to get them.

'Just As I Am.'

Just as I am, my Savior wants me. Not as I may be next year; not as I may be after I have reformed in my own strength; not as I hope some time to be; but 'just as I am.' If such is the case, and we know that it is, why shall we not come? The longer we hesitate, the longer we delay; the longer we refuse to come, the harder do we make it for ourselves. Let us say with Cennick:

'Lo! glad I come, and thou, blest Lamb, Shalt take me to thee as I am; Nothing but sin I thee can give; Nothing but love I shall receive.'

—Moravian.

The Fruit Of One Bible.

One of our Bible-sellers, in the course of his journeyings, sold several copies of the Bible in the little town of Machado, in the province of Minas, in Brazil. The parish priest having been informed of the fact, took occasion, upon the first celebration of mass, to declare all those Bibles counterfeits, and to order them to be burned. One of the purchasers was about to burn his Bible, when a neighbor, less superstitious, or less afraid of the priest, and thinking it a shame to destroy so handsome a book, interposed, asking that the book might be given to him. Having received it and valuing it only for the sake of its gilt and binding, he laid it aside in a drawer, where it remained for several years. Finally, God in his providence removed by death a beloved son. Then, in the hour of their affliction, his parents remembered the holy book, and taking from its prison-house this Bible, which was perhaps the only one in the whole place which had escaped the flames, they commenced to read it, and soon found there the only balm for wounded hearts. By the reading of this Bible that whole family of eight souls was converted, and thus were laid the foundation stones of what is today the church of Machado, with twenty five members.

The good seed, though deeply buried, in God's own time will sprout and grow and bring forth fruit a hundred fold.—The Foreign Missionary.
